

		OHMAR 2019: Access and Inclusion in Oral History
		Magill 107	Magill 108	Magill Club Dining Room
Thursday, April 18
8:30 AM	Registration (Magill Lobby)
9:00 AM - 9:30 AM				Keynote Address: Brian Greenwald and Jean Bergey, Gallaudet University
9:45 AM - 11:15 AM	Session I	The Art of Learning to "Listen:" Oral History, Nontraditional Communication, and a More Radically Inclusive Practice (listening session)	Cultural Transmission via Oral History
11:30 AM - 1:00 PM	Session II	Creating Visible Lives: Oral Histories of the Disability Experience at NY Pubic Library	Reflections on Oral History and Disability
1:00 PM - 3:00 PM				Forest Pogue Luncheon, OHMAR Business Meeting, In Memoriam
3:15 PM - 4:45 PM	Session III	Local Disability Activisim and Awareness: A Research Project by Students at Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania	Accomodations in Project Design
5:00 PM - 7:00 PM	Evening Reception, details TBD
Friday, April 19
8:30 AM	Registration (Magill Lobby)
9:15 AM - 10:45 AM	Session IV	The Columbia Life Histories Project: A Case Study in Using Oral History to Guide a University's Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives	Oral History and Understanding: Student Perspective
10:45-11:30 AM				Coffee Break/Refreshments
11:30-2:30 PM	Workshops	Oral History & Podcasting/Radio Storytelling	Introduction to Oral History	